

Domino's® Locations throughout New York City to Hire 200 New Team Members

January 19, 2017

New minimum wage increase has made Domino's among the highest paying pizza delivery companies in New York City

NEW YORK, Jan. 19, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Come work for Domino's and earn more! Domino's, the number one pizza company in New York City, is looking to hire 200 new team members across its corporate-owned stores. All of the new positions offered are for delivery drivers, customer service representatives and assistant managers.

"We are excited to offer additional jobs throughout the area," said Bob Machin, Domino's director of corporate operations in New York. "If you are looking for your first job, a new opportunity or to transfer from your current job to the number one pizza company in New York City, Domino's is hiring and we pay more. Enthusiastic and positive-attitude leadership is our philosophy, and we're in search of team members who reflect that so we can continue to do what we do best – make great pizzas and deliver them with exceptional service."

The starting wage for delivery drivers is $12/hour in addition to mileage reimbursement and tips. Domino's pays to train its team members and scheduling is flexible. Assistant managers make $13.50-$14.50/hour and receive benefits. Domino's offers health benefits, food discounts and accelerated career development to all eligible team members. In fact, 90 percent of Domino's franchise owners began their careers working in a store or as delivery drivers.

The continued success of Domino's across the nation, and specifically the growth and success of the New York City stores, increases the need for additional support from enthusiastic employees.

"Domino's is a fun place to work," said Machin. "Our company truly provides a fantastic opportunity to those who show initiative and a desire to advance. Whether you're looking to grow with our company and have a long-term career or need a part-time job with flexibility, Domino's is the place to be."
