3,000 Shares
Piece of the Pie Program

Domino's Pizza, Inc. (the "Company") is pleased to offer the opportunity for eligible customers to participate in the Domino's Pizza Piece of the Pie Program (the "Plan") described in this prospectus supplement. We have established the Plan to provide our eligible customers with the opportunity to be entered into drawings under the Plan to receive ten shares of our common stock, par value $0.01 per share (our "Common Stock") as a thank you for being a loyal customer. An "eligible customer" means a U.S. resident age 18 or older who enrolls in the Plan, subject to certain exceptions described in this prospectus supplement under "Description of the Plan—Eligibility." Between December 5, 2016 and November 30, 2017 (the "Offer Period"), we will conduct 25 drawings per month. An eligible customer who has enrolled in the Plan prior to a particular drawing date will be automatically entered into that drawing. Eligible customers will not be eligible to participate in drawings occurring prior to the date of enrollment in the Plan. An eligible customer who is selected in a drawing to receive an award under the Plan will be presented with an offer (the "Offer") to receive ten shares of our Common Stock (each a "Share" and collectively, the "Shares") under the Plan (each a "Piece of the Pie Award"). Redemptions of Piece of the Pie Awards will be fulfilled through Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC and Fidelity Capital Markets, a division of National Financial Services LLC (collectively, "Fidelity") and will require that, as a condition to redemption of a Piece of the Pie Award, the selected eligible customer open a brokerage account with Fidelity (the "Fidelity Account") into which the Shares can be deposited. Fidelity will obtain the Shares to be delivered upon redemption of Piece of the Pie Awards through open market purchases or, to the extent determined by the Company, delivery by the Company to Fidelity of newly-issued shares. A Piece of the Pie Award must be redeemed within 30 days of receipt, after which time such Piece of the Pie Award will expire if not previously redeemed. Piece of the Pie Awards are limited to ten Shares per selected eligible customer and no eligible customer may receive more than one Piece of the Pie Award. In order to enter for a chance to receive a Piece of the Pie Award, eligible customers must enroll in the Plan using their account on the Domino's Pizza application (the "Domino's Pizza App") or by registering on the www.dominos.com website. An eligible customer who enrolls in the Plan will only be eligible to participate in drawings occurring after the date of such enrollment.

We believe that the Plan presents an opportunity to thank our customers for their loyalty. As described in more detail in this prospectus supplement, the following features are available to Plan participants ("participants," "you," or "your") and Plan participants must agree to certain terms:

- Simple Enrollment and Easy to Redeem Awards. Eligible customers can enter for a chance to receive a Piece of the Pie Award by enrolling in the Plan using their account on the Domino's Pizza App or by registering on the www.dominos.com website. Eligible customers who are selected to receive a Piece of the Pie Award can redeem their Piece of the Pie Award by opening a brokerage account at Fidelity and otherwise complying with the terms of the Plan as described in this prospectus supplement.
- No Fees to Enroll and Redeem Piece of the Pie Awards. A participant will be able to redeem a Piece of the Pie Award at no cost to the participant.
- Fees to Sell Shares Issuable Upon Redemption of Piece of the Pie Awards. A participant who redeems a Piece of the Pie Award will be entitled to make one purchase or sale transaction in his or her Fidelity Account without paying a commission to Fidelity. This one transaction may, but need not, involve some or all of the Shares received upon redemption of a Piece of the Pie Award. All other transactions made in the eligible customer's Fidelity Account (including any such transactions involving Shares) will be subject to Fidelity's fee schedule applicable to such Fidelity Account as specified by Fidelity from time to time. See "Cost to Participants" below. Participants may withdraw proceeds from the sale of Shares by electronic transfer in accordance with the terms of their Fidelity Account.
- Fully Electronic Stockholder Communications. To participate in the Plan, participants must agree, subject to applicable law, to receive all stockholder communications from Domino's Pizza electronically through Fidelity.
- Review Positions Online. Participants can access positions and history and engage in Plan transactions through their Fidelity Account using the Fidelity technology platform.
- No Control over Exact Timing of Redemption Transactions. Plan participants will not have complete control over the exact timing of transactions or the price of Shares at the time of any redemption of a Piece of the Pie Award, as Plan transaction orders may be executed on a batched basis.
- Right to Suspend or Modify. The Plan, and redemptions of Piece of the Pie Awards issued thereunder, may be suspended, modified, terminated or extended at any time. The terms and conditions of the Plan may be changed, limited, modified or eliminated at any time.

Shares offered under the Plan are offered through Fidelity, a U.S. registered broker-dealer. Fidelity will act as your broker and agent in all Plan transactions and you must open a Fidelity Account. You do not have to be a current stockholder of Domino's Pizza to participate in the Plan.

As a condition to participation in the Plan, participants must consent to electronic delivery of this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus, all prospectus amendments and supplements, confirmations and other information relating to this offering. This consent may not be revoked. Upon enrollment, you must also consent to electronic delivery of annual reports, proxy statements, communications and other materials provided generally to our stockholders from time to time.

Our Common Stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange and trades under the ticker symbol "DPZ." On December 1, 2016, the closing price of our Common Stock was $168.70 per Share. Please read this prospectus supplement carefully and keep it for future reference.

OUR COMPANY

Domino's is the second largest pizza restaurant chain in the world, with more than 12,500 locations in over 80 markets around the world. Founded in 1960, our roots are in convenient pizza delivery, while a significant amount of our sales also come from carryout customers. Although we are a highly-recognized global brand, we focus on serving the local neighborhoods in which we live and do business through our large network of franchise owners and Company-owned stores. On average, we sell more than 1.5 million pizzas each day throughout our global system.

Our business model is straightforward: we handcraft and serve quality food at a competitive price, with easy ordering access and efficient service, enhanced by our technology innovations. Our dough is generally made fresh and distributed to stores around the world by us and our franchisees.

Domino's generates revenues and earnings by charging royalties to its franchisees. Royalties are ongoing percent-of-sales fees for use of the Domino's brand marks. The Company also generates revenues and earnings by selling food, equipment and supplies to franchisees primarily in the U.S. and Canada, and by operating a number of our own stores. Franchisees profit by selling pizza and other complementary items to their local customers. In our international markets, we generally grant geographical rights to the Domino's Pizza® brand to master franchisees. These master franchisees are charged with developing their geographical area, and they may profit by sub-franchising and selling ingredients and equipment to those sub-franchisees, as well as by running pizza stores. Everyone in the system can benefit, including the end consumer, who can feed their family Domino's menu items conveniently and economically.

Our corporate headquarters and principal executive offices are located at 30 Frank Lloyd Wright Drive, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48105. Our telephone number is (734) 930-3030. We maintain a website at www.dominos.com where our Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Current Reports on Form 8-K and all amendments to those reports are available without charge, as soon as reasonably practicable following the time they are filed with or furnished to the SEC. The information on or accessible through our website is not incorporated into or part of this prospectus supplement (except as set forth under "Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference").

THE PIECE OF THE PIE PROGRAM

The Piece of the Pie Program is just one of the ways we are giving thanks to our customers. Through the Plan, we are offering our eligible customers the opportunity to be entered into drawings for a chance to be selected to receive ten Shares.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our securities involves a high degree of risk. Prior to making a decision about participating in the Plan, you should carefully consider the following risks and uncertainties, as well as those discussed under the caption “Item 1A—Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 3, 2016, and subsequent reports we file on Forms 10-Q and 8-K, which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus. If any of the risks described in this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus, or the risks described in any documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus, actually occur, our business, prospects, financial condition or operating results could be harmed. In such case, the trading price of our Common Stock could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment.

Additional Risks Relating to Participation in the Plan

You will not have control over the exact timing of transactions and you will not know the price of the Shares you are obtaining upon redemption of a Piece of the Pie Award under the Plan at the time you authorize the transaction.

You will not have complete control over the exact timing of transactions or the price of Shares at the time you redeem a Piece of the Pie Award, as Plan transaction orders may be executed on a batched basis—meaning that your order will be batched or combined with orders from other participants redeeming Piece of the Pie Awards. Unlike a market order placed in an ordinary brokerage account, there may be a substantial delay between the time you enter your redemption order and the time it is executed. The time between the placement of a redemption order and the execution of that order could be four or more business days or possibly longer. Order processing may be further delayed by market events such as trading halts, whether due to external causes, such as exchange halts (which would apply to all securities transactions) or suspension of Plan trading activity initiated by Fidelity or by the Company (at Fidelity’s or the Company’s sole discretion). In the event of a trading halt or Plan activity suspension, redemption orders will be executed according to Fidelity’s batch trading policies on the first available day after the trading halt or Plan activity suspension is lifted.

As a result of the batch method of transactions, the price of Shares of our Common Stock may fluctuate, perhaps significantly, between the time you decide to redeem a Piece of the Pie Award under the Plan and the time of actual execution of such transaction, potentially causing you to realize less in respect of your investment. During this time period, you may become aware of additional information that might affect your investment decision, but you will not be able to change or cancel your transaction.

We may limit, add to, suspend, modify, terminate or extend the Plan, or redemptions of Piece of the Pie Awards, at any time.

At any time and in our sole discretion, we may limit, add to, suspend, modify terminate or extend the Plan, or redemptions of Piece of the Pie Awards under the Plan, or any of its terms and conditions, which could result in the realization of substantially fewer benefits to participants than what you may expect. We have no prior experience with the implementation of a program such as the Plan. We may find that it is substantially more expensive to implement and maintain than what we currently expect, or it may result in substantially fewer benefits than what we anticipate. We have reserved the right to change the terms and conditions of the Plan or Piece of the Pie Awards or to modify, suspend, or cancel the Plan in its entirety or to modify, suspend or cancel any Piece of the Pie Awards at any time. Any of these actions could keep you from realizing any meaningful benefit from the Plan or any Piece of the Pie Award, and you could realize substantially fewer benefits of participation than what you may expect.

All communications with Plan participants and all voting with respect to Shares held through the Plan will be electronic, meaning that you will not be provided with paper communications and must rely on having access to the Internet.

Subject to applicable laws and rules, all stockholder communications will be made electronically, either via email, email notification to access online information, or as otherwise contemplated herein. As a result, you should not expect to receive stockholder communications through the mail. Electronic communications will include, among others, confirmations of transactions, account statements, annual reports, proxy materials and stockholder communications, notices of modifications of Fidelity's privacy policies as well as other basic communications, including information about your Fidelity Account. Generally, the only way to get paper copies of these communications is to print them from a computer. Regular and continuous Internet access is required to access all communications relating to your Shares in the Plan and your Fidelity Account. You should not hold Shares through the Plan if you do not have regular and continuous Internet access.

When you redeem your Piece of the Pie Award, you become a Domino's Pizza stockholder. As a stockholder, you gain all the voting rights and privileges associated with ownership of Shares. You will have the right to vote your Shares, but all voting will be done through Fidelity through electronic communication. When you communicate to Fidelity how you would like to vote your Shares, Fidelity will collect that information, aggregate it with all other voting instructions submitted with respect to Shares held through the Plan and communicate those instructions on an aggregated basis to Domino's Pizza. Except as otherwise permitted by applicable law or stock exchange rule, none of your Shares will be voted in any way unless authorized by you.

Should you revoke your consent to electronic delivery to receive paper copies of these communications, your revocation will constitute a request to liquidate your Shares held in your Fidelity Account on your behalf, unless you provide instructions for a transfer of your Shares from Fidelity to another U.S. financial institution that makes those communications available through non-electronic means. Any such revocation will be deemed effective as of the date of the liquidation or transfer and will not affect any such communications previously delivered by Fidelity, or pertaining to transactions or matters occurring prior to the transfer. There can be no assurance that you will be able to effect the transfer requested and communication in paper form in a timely manner.

Any Piece of the Pie Awards you receive as a result of the Plan could have adverse tax consequences to you.

You will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the value of your Piece of the Pie Award. Your participation in the Plan may also increase the complexity of your tax filings and may cause you to be ineligible to file Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Form 1040-EZ, if you would otherwise be eligible to file such form. See "Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations," below for more information on the U.S. federal income tax consequences of participation in the Plan.

The administration and operation of the Plan is significantly dependent on information technology.

The Plan utilizes a technology platform, posing increased operational risk associated with the use of newer technologies. Because all redemptions under the Plan will be placed through e-commerce Web sites, participants must rely on us and Fidelity to securely collect, transmit, and store electronic information in connection with its administration of the Plan. Despite any security measures that we or Fidelity may put in place, we and its (and our and its service providers') information technology systems may be susceptible to damage, disruptions, or shutdowns due to hardware failures, computer viruses, hacker attacks, telecommunication failures, user errors, catastrophic events, or other factors. Any damage or disruption to, or shutdown suffered by, information technology systems used in connection with the Plan could interrupt Plan administration and expose participants (current and past) to the risk that others may obtain unauthorized access to their confidential information, including personal information and credit card and other financial data.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

Summary

We have served up the Piece of the Pie Program to thank our customers for their loyalty and to enable selected eligible customers to participate in the ownership of our Company.

Shares for the Plan will be purchased in the open market by Fidelity or, at our election, provided by us to Fidelity out of our authorized but unissued shares and will be initially deposited in a custody account in the name of the Company (“Custody Account”). Open market purchases will be effected by Fidelity, with all Shares to be credited to the applicable participant’s Fidelity Account. Fidelity has full discretion as to all matters relating to open market purchases, subject to the terms of our agreement with them, including the number of Shares, if any, to be purchased on any day or at any time of day, the price paid for such Shares, the markets on which Shares are purchased (including on any securities exchange, in the over-the-counter market or in negotiated transactions) and the persons (including brokers and dealers) from or through whom such purchases are made.

The Plan is not designed for short-term investors, as participants will not have complete control over the exact timing of redemption transactions or the market value of our Common Stock redeemed pursuant to a Piece of the Pie Award under the Plan. See “—Timing of Purchases.” The Plan is designed primarily for customers who have a long-term perspective and affinity for the Company and its values.

This one transaction may, but need not, involve some or all of the Shares received upon redemption of a Piece of the Pie Award. The Offer

We are pleased to offer the opportunity for eligible customers to participate in the Plan described in this prospectus supplement. We have established the Plan to provide our eligible customers with the opportunity to be entered into drawings under the Plan to receive ten shares of our Common Stock as a thank you for being a loyal customer. Between December 5, 2016 and November 30, 2017 (the “Offer Period”), we will conduct 25 drawings per month. An eligible customer who has enrolled in the Plan prior to a particular drawing date will be automatically entered into that drawing. Eligible customers will not be eligible to participate in drawings occurring prior to the date of enrollment in the Plan. An eligible customer who is selected in a drawing to receive an award under the Plan will be presented with an offer (the “Offer”) to receive ten shares of our Common Stock (each a “Share” and collectively, the “Shares”) under the Plan (each a “Piece of the Pie Award”).

Redemptions of Piece of the Pie Awards will be fulfilled through Fidelity and will require that, as a condition to redemption of a Piece of the Pie Award, the selected eligible customer open a brokerage account with Fidelity into which the Shares can be deposited. Fidelity will obtain the Shares to be delivered upon redemption of Piece of the Pie Awards through open market purchases or, to the extent determined by the Company, delivery by the Company to Fidelity of newly-issued shares. A Piece of the Pie Award must be redeemed within 30 days of receipt, after which time such Piece of the Pie Award will expire if not previously redeemed. Piece of the Pie Awards are limited to ten Shares per selected eligible customer and no eligible customer may receive more than one Piece of the Pie Award. In order to enter for a chance to receive a Piece of the Pie Award, eligible customers must enroll in the Plan using their account on the Domino’s Pizza App or by registering on the www.dominos.com website. An eligible customer who enrolls in the Plan will only be eligible to participate in drawings occurring after the date of such enrollment.

Fidelity

Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC and Fidelity Capital Markets, a division of National Financial Services LLC (collectively, “Fidelity”), a U.S. registered broker-dealer, will act as your broker and agent in all Plan transactions and you must open a brokerage account (“Fidelity Account”) with Fidelity. We will be paying Fidelity for brokerage, technology, and other services. All brokerage services will be provided by Fidelity. We expect to pay Fidelity a customary fee per redemption of Piece of the Pie Awards.

Any questions regarding a participant’s Fidelity Account or transactions in such account, including any transactions involving Shares, should be directed to Fidelity in the manner specified by Fidelity in the information provided in connection with opening the Fidelity Account. Any other questions regarding the Plan may be directed to us at Domino’s Pizza, Inc., 30 Frank Lloyd Wright Drive, Ann Arbor, MI 48106, Attention: Legal Department or by calling us at (734) 930-3030.

Except as described in the next sentence, you are eligible to participate in the Plan if you are a U.S. resident age 18 or older who enrolls in the Plan. Employees of Domino’s Pizza, Fidelity, HelloWorld, Inc., and their respective parent, subsidiary and affiliate companies and advertising and promotion agencies as well as the immediate family members (spouse, parents, siblings and children and their respective spouses, regardless of where they reside) and household members of each such employee, whether or not related, are not eligible to participate in the Plan. In addition, participation in the Plan is not permitted where prohibited by applicable law. An eligible customer who has enrolled in the Plan prior to a particular drawing date will be automatically entered into that drawing. Eligible customers will not be eligible to participate in drawings occurring prior to the date of enrollment in the Plan. No person may receive or redeem more than one Piece of the Pie Award under the Offer.

Domino's Pizza reserves the right to make all determinations regarding eligibility to participate in the Plan or to receive or redeem a Piece of the Pie Award.

Piece of the Pie Awards are not transferable. Shares acquired upon redemption of a Piece of the Pie Award are freely transferable by the holder thereof.

Source of the Shares

Shares of our Common Stock needed to meet Plan requirements will be purchased in the open market or, to the extent determined by the Company, delivery by the Company to Fidelity of newly-issued shares, and will be held through the Custody Account. Open market purchases will be effected by Fidelity, with all Shares to be credited to the applicable participants' accounts.

Timing of Receipt of Shares upon Redemption of Piece of the Pie Awards

Once an eligible customer that has received a Piece of the Pie Award has opened a Fidelity Account and redeemed a Piece of the Pie Award, Fidelity will generally deposit the Shares in such participant's account within 10 trading days, provided that no suspension of activity or trading halt has occurred, as described below.

Timing of Purchases

Open Market. Share purchases in the open market to satisfy the redemption of a Piece of the Pie Award will generally occur on a daily basis on the first regular trading day following approval and opening of the Fidelity Account (or on the next trading day if the market is not open), which normally takes four or more business days after your redemption order is entered, but may be longer. You will receive an electronic redemption confirmation upon deposit of the Shares into your Fidelity Account.

Trade Halts and Black-Out Periods. Please note that the timing of any redemptions may be affected by market events such as trading halts, whether due to external causes, such as exchange halts (which would apply to all securities transactions) or suspension of Plan trading activity initiated by Fidelity or by the Company (at Fidelity's or the Company's sole discretion). In the event of a trading halt or Plan activity suspension, redemptions may be executed according to Fidelity's batch trading policies on the first available day after the trading halt or Plan activity suspension is lifted.

Sale of Shares

You may sell all of your Shares held received under the Plan at any time after you have received a confirmation that the Shares acquired upon redemption of your Piece of the Pie Award are in your account. You may do so by entering sale instructions online through your Fidelity Account. Sale orders will typically be executed the same trading day by Fidelity depending on the type of order placed by the customer. All executions at Fidelity are done on a real time basis. The timing of any sale order processing may be affected by market events such as trade halts initiated by Fidelity or otherwise.

A participant who redeems a Piece of the Pie Award will be entitled to make one purchase or sale transaction in his or her Fidelity Account without paying a commission to Fidelity. This one transaction may, but need not, involve some or all of the Shares received upon redemption of a Piece of the Pie Award. All other transactions made in the eligible customer's Fidelity Account (including any such transactions involving Shares) will be subject to Fidelity's fee schedule applicable to such Fidelity Account as specified by Fidelity from time to time. See "Cost to Participants" below.

In order to transfer proceeds from the sale of Shares held in your Fidelity Account out of your Fidelity Account, you must follow the procedures established by Fidelity and applicable to your Fidelity Account.

Subject to certain restrictions, if you would like to transfer some or all of the Shares held in your Fidelity Account to a different brokerage account, you may do so by instructing your new broker to initiate the transfer.

Electronic Book-Entry of Shares

Shares issued pursuant to the Plan and held in your Fidelity Account will be maintained in your name in book-entry form. Physical certificates are not available.

Communications and Reports to Participants

By becoming a participant in the Plan, you agree, for so long as you continue as a participant or hold Shares through the Plan or remain a customer of Fidelity, to receive all communications from the Company and Fidelity electronically either via email or email notification to access online information (except when the Company or Fidelity is required to provide the option for non-electronic communication or documentation by law or regulation upon your request). Electronic communication will include, but will not be limited to, confirmations of transactions, account statements, proxy materials and stockholder communications, notices of modifications of the privacy policies of Fidelity as well as other basic communications, including information from Fidelity. Any communications electronically delivered by Fidelity to your password-protected area of the Plan participant site will be deemed to have been received by you at the time notice by email is sent to your email address, and any communications delivered by email when sent to your email address. You agree to advise Fidelity promptly of any change of your email and/or residential address. You also agree to notify Fidelity promptly of any errors or omissions in any transaction or in the handling of your Plan participation.

You will also consent to electronically receive U.S. tax reporting documents (such as an IRS Form 1099-B reflecting proceeds in the case of a sale of Shares held in the Plan) unless you affirmatively opt to receive them in paper form in connection with the opening of your Fidelity Account.

Termination of Plan Participation

You may discontinue participation in the Plan at any time by selling all of your Shares received pursuant to the Plan.

Cost to Participants

Applicable fees are as follows:

Plan Enrollment:	No charge
Redemption of Piece of the Pie Award:	No charge
Sale of Shares:	No commission charge for one online purchase or sale transaction effected in the Fidelity Account through Fidelity.com. Thereafter, all transactions subject to Fidelity’s fee schedule applicable to the Fidelity Account as specified by Fidelity from time to time (generally Fidelity charges a $7.95 brokerage commission in connection with online purchase or sale transactions)
Transfer of Shares to another brokerage account:	No charge

The fees specified above may be changed by Fidelity from time to time in accordance with the terms of the Fidelity Account. Fidelity will provide you with advance notice of the imposition of any sales charge and of any changes to the fees charged by Fidelity with respect to your Fidelity Account.

Additional Information about the Plan

Voting. You will be entitled to all of the voting rights and privileges associated with ownership of your Shares. You will receive all stockholder communications electronically, including proxy materials and annual reports. You will have the right to vote your Shares, but all voting will be done through Fidelity through electronic communication. When you communicate to Fidelity how you would like to vote your Shares, Fidelity will collect that information, aggregate it with all other voting instructions submitted with respect to shares of our Common Stock and communicate those instructions on an aggregated basis to Domino's Pizza. Your voting instructions will be obtained through an electronic voting instruction form distributed to you through the Fidelity platform. None of your Shares will be voted in any way unless authorized by you.

Responsibilities. Neither the Company nor Fidelity can assure you a minimum guaranteed sales price on the Shares that you acquire under the Plan. Neither the Company nor Fidelity nor any of their affiliates will be liable for any act done in good faith, or as required by applicable law, or for any good faith omission to act. This includes, without limitation, any claims for liability relating to the prices at which Shares of our Common Stock are acquired or sold for you, the dates of redemption or sales, or any change in the value of the Shares.

Your Plan participation represents an investment in our Common Stock, which may increase or decrease in value. You are responsible for the investment decisions regarding your Plan investments. Neither we nor Fidelity will provide any investment advice. You must make independent investment decisions on the redemption of Piece of the Pie Awards and sale of Shares received pursuant to the Plan based upon your own judgment and research.

You are responsible for all costs that you separately incur in connection with Plan participation, such as the cost of your Internet service provider or any fees that your bank may charge you for electronic funds transfer and delivery. You are responsible for providing notice of any change in your email address, or other personal or payment information on the Fidelity platform.

Plan Changes or Interpretations. This prospectus supplement (including any supplements or revisions that may be distributed in the future) sets forth the terms of the Plan. We reserve the right to add to, suspend, modify, or terminate the Plan or any Piece of the Pie Award at any time. You will receive notice of any significant addition, suspension, modification, or termination. The Company and Fidelity also reserve the right to change any administrative procedures of the Plan without notice.

We or Fidelity will determine any question of interpretation arising under the Plan, and any such determination will be final. Any action taken by us or Fidelity to effectuate the Plan in the good faith exercise of our or its respective judgment will be binding on all parties.

Handling of Stock Splits and Stock Dividends. The number of Shares of our Common Stock registered under the Registration Statement for the Plan (of which this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus forms a part) as well as any calculation of Shares to be issued pursuant to any Piece of the Pie Award and any other per share calculations based on Shares will be subject to equitable adjustment to reflect any increase or decrease in the number of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from any stock split, stock dividend or similar transaction.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The Company will not receive any proceeds from the issuance or redemption of Piece of the Pie Awards or from the sale of any Shares issued under the Plan in respect of Piece of the Pie Awards.

CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a general summary of certain U.S. federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to the Plan. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the "Code"), the U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, administrative pronouncements and judicial decisions, all as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. The following discussion is for general purposes only, is limited to U.S. federal income tax consequences, and is addressed only to individuals who are "U.S. persons" within the meaning of the Code (very generally, U.S. citizens and residents) and who hold their Shares as "capital assets" within the meaning of the Code. You are urged to consult your own tax advisor with respect to any other tax consequences of the Plan, including the tax consequences, if any, under state, local, foreign, estate, and other tax laws.

We intend to treat your receipt of Shares under the Plan in connection with your redemption of your Piece of the Pie Award as a taxable prize or award for U.S. federal income tax purposes, resulting in taxable ordinary income to you upon redemption equal to the fair market value of the Shares on the date you redeem such award.

Upon a taxable sale or other taxable disposition of any Shares you receive pursuant to the Plan, you will realize, in general, a capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount you receive on such disposition and your adjusted tax basis in such Shares. In general, any gain or loss recognized upon a disposition of Shares will be long-term capital gain or loss if you have held the Shares for more than 12 months at the time of disposition. Otherwise, any gain or loss recognized on a disposition of Shares will be treated as short-term capital gain or loss. Under the Code as currently in effect, long-term capital gains of individuals are taxed at lower rates than ordinary income and short-term capital gains are taxable at ordinary income rates. Your ability to deduct capital losses could be limited. Your adjusted tax basis in your Shares should equal the taxable income that you recognize upon redemption of your Piece of the Pie Award, which will generally equal the fair market value of the Shares on the date of redemption of your award.

If you receive Shares pursuant to a redemption of a Piece of the Pie Award, you will be issued an IRS Form 1099-MISC, and a copy of such Form will be provided to the IRS. You will also be required to furnish your taxpayer identification number and to certify that you are not subject to backup withholding on an IRS Form W-9. If you fail to furnish properly a correct taxpayer identification number, or to certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or if you have under-reported dividend or interest income, you may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28%. Your participation in the Plan may also be subject to other information reporting and tax withholding requirements.

Your participation in the Plan may increase the complexity of your tax filings and may cause you to be ineligible to file Internal Revenue Service Form 1040-EZ, if you would otherwise be eligible to file such form.

The U.S. federal income tax discussion set forth above is included for general information only. You are urged to consult your own tax advisor with respect to the tax consequences of your participation in the Plan, including the tax consequences under state, local, foreign, estate, and other tax laws and tax treaties, and the possible effects of changes in U.S. or other tax laws.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Shares offered pursuant to the Plan are offered directly to Plan participants. There are no expenses charged to participants in connection with the issuance of Shares upon redemption of Piece of the Pie Awards under the Plan. All costs of administering the Plan will be paid by us. Costs associated with the sale or other disposition of Shares acquired under Plan will be borne by the recipient of such Shares. We are not making an offer to sell our Common Stock in any jurisdiction where the offer or sale is not permitted.

This prospectus supplement and the prospectus is a part of a registration statement that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), as a “well-known seasoned issuer” as defined under Rule 405 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), using a “shelf” registration process. RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, any prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein include statements that express our opinions, expectations, beliefs, plans, objectives, assumptions or projections regarding future events or future results and therefore are, or may be deemed to be, “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (collectively, the “PSLRA”). These forward-looking statements are based on current management expectations that involve substantial risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially from the results expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements and such forward-looking statements are being made pursuant to the provisions of the PSLRA and with the intention of obtaining the benefits of the “safe harbor” provisions of the PSLRA. DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK, CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND BY-LAWS

General

The total amount of our authorized capital stock consists of 160,000,000 shares of common stock, 10,000,000 shares of non-voting common stock, and 5,000,000 shares of undesignated preferred stock. As of November 6, 2016, we had outstanding 48,193,386 shares of common stock held by 1,214 stockholders of record and 17,754 shares of non-voting common stock held by 5 stockholders of record and we had outstanding options to purchase 2,483,149 shares of common stock at a weighted average exercise price of $42.50 per share. We had no shares of preferred stock outstanding. Our non-voting common stock was issued to certain securityholders who acquired these shares, or options exercisable for such shares, prior to our initial public offering and we do not expect to issue any additional shares of our non-voting common stock.

The following summary describes the material provisions of our capital stock. We urge you to read our certificate of incorporation and our by-laws, which are included as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part, together with the applicable provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law, as amended.

Our certificate of incorporation and by-laws contain provisions that are intended to enhance the likelihood of continuity and stability in the composition of the board of directors and which may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a future takeover or change in control of our company unless such takeover or change in control is approved by our board of directors. These provisions include elimination of stockholder action by written consents, elimination of the ability of stockholders to call special meetings, advance notice procedures for stockholder proposals and supermajority vote requirements for amendments to our certificate of incorporation and by-laws.

Common Stock

Shares of our common stock have the following rights, preferences and privileges:

Voting Rights. Each outstanding share of common stock (other than shares of non-voting common stock held by certain securityholders that acquired these shares, or options exercisable for such shares, prior to our initial public offering) entitles its holder to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders, including the election of directors. There are no cumulative voting rights. Our voting common stock votes together as one class on all matters.

Conversion Rights of Non-Voting Common Stock. All shares of non-voting common stock are convertible into shares of our common stock upon transfer to a non-affiliate of the holder or otherwise in a brokerage transaction. We do not expect to issue any additional shares of our non-voting common stock.

Dividends. Subject to the rights of the holders of any preferred stock which may be outstanding from time to time, the holders of common stock are entitled to receive dividends as, when and if dividends are declared by our board of directors out of assets legally available for the payment of dividends.

Liquidation. In the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our affairs, whether voluntary or involuntary, after payment of our liabilities and obligations to creditors and any holders of preferred stock, our remaining assets will be distributed ratably among the holders of shares of common stock on a per share basis.

Rights and Preferences. Our common stock has no preemptive, redemption, conversion or subscription rights. The rights, powers, preferences and privileges of holders of our common stock are subject to, and may be adversely affected by, the rights of the holders of shares of any series of preferred stock that we may designate and issue in the future.

Merger. In the event of a merger or consolidation of us with or into another entity, holders of each share of common stock will be entitled to receive the same per share consideration.

Listing. Our common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the trading symbol “DPZ.”

Preferred Stock

Our board of directors may, without further action by our stockholders, from time to time, direct the issuance of shares of preferred stock in series and may, at the time of issuance, determine the designations, powers, preferences, privileges, and relative participating, optional or special rights as well as the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, including dividend rights, conversion rights, voting rights, terms of redemption and liquidation preferences, any or all of which may be greater than the rights of the common stock. Satisfaction of any dividend preferences of outstanding shares of preferred stock would reduce the amount of funds available for the payment of dividends on shares of our common stock. Holders of shares of preferred stock may be entitled to receive a preference payment in the event of our liquidation, dissolution or winding-up before any payment is made to the holders of shares of our common stock. Under certain circumstances, the issuance of shares of preferred stock may render more difficult or tend to discourage a merger, tender offer or proxy contest, the assumption of control by a holder of a large block of our securities or the removal of incumbent management. Upon the affirmative vote of our board of directors, without stockholder approval, we may issue shares of preferred stock with voting and conversion rights which could adversely affect the holders of shares of our common stock and the market value of our common stock. There are no shares of preferred stock outstanding, and we have no present intention to issue any shares of preferred stock.

Other Provisions of our Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws

Election of Directors. Our certificate of incorporation provides for each member of our board to be elected annually and directors may be removed, with or without cause, upon the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of our then outstanding capital stock entitled to vote at an election of directors.

Elimination of Stockholder Action Through Written Consent. Our by-laws provide that stockholder action can be taken only at an annual or special meeting of stockholders and cannot be taken by written consent in lieu of a meeting.

Elimination of the Ability to Call Special Meetings. Our certificate of incorporation and by-laws provide that, except as otherwise required by law, special meetings of our stockholders can only be called pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of our board of directors or by our chief executive officer or the chairman of our board of directors. Stockholders are not permitted to call a special meeting or to require our board to call a special meeting.

Advanced Notice Procedures for Stockholder Proposals. Our by-laws establish an advance notice procedure for stockholder proposals to be brought before an annual meeting of our stockholders, including proposed nominations of persons for election to our board. Stockholders at our annual meeting may only consider proposals or nominations specified in the notice of meeting or brought before the meeting by or at the direction of our board or by a stockholder who was a stockholder of record on the record date for the meeting, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who has given to our secretary timely written notice, in proper form, of the stockholder's intention to bring that business before the meeting and has provided us with the other information required under our by-laws. Although our by-laws do not give our board the power to approve or disapprove stockholder nominations of candidates or proposals regarding other business to be conducted at a special or annual meeting, our by-laws may have the effect of precluding the conduct of some business at a meeting if the proper procedures are not followed or may discourage or defer a potential acquirer from conducting a solicitation of proxies to elect its own slate of directors or otherwise attempting to obtain control of us.

Amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws. Our certificate of incorporation and by-laws provide that the affirmative vote of holders of at least 75% of the total votes eligible to be cast in the election of directors is required to amend, alter, change or repeal some of their provisions, unless, in certain circumstances, such amendment or change has been approved by a majority of those directors who are not affiliated or associated with any person or entity holding 10% or more of the voting power of our outstanding capital stock or who have been determined by us to be independent under the applicable listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. This requirement of a super-majority vote to approve amendments to our certificate of incorporation and by-laws could enable a minority of our stockholders to exercise veto power over any such amendments.

Authorized but Unissued Shares. Our authorized but unissued shares of common stock and preferred stock will be available for future issuance without stockholder approval. These additional shares may be utilized for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings to raise additional capital, corporate acquisitions and employee benefit plans. The existence of authorized but unissued shares of common stock and preferred stock could render more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of a majority of our common stock by means of a proxy contest, tender offer, merger or otherwise.

Business Combinations with Interested Stockholders. We are subject to the "business combination" provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law. In general, such provisions prohibit a publicly-held Delaware corporation from engaging in any "business combination" transactions with any "interested stockholder" for a period of three years after the date on which the person became an "interested stockholder," unless:

- prior to such date, the board of directors approved either the "business combination" or the transaction which resulted in the "interested stockholder" obtaining such status;
- upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an "interested stockholder," the "interested stockholder" owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced, excluding for purposes of determining the voting stock outstanding (but not the outstanding voting stock owned by the "interested stockholder") those shares owned by (a) persons who are directors and also officers and (b) employee stock plans in which employee participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether shares held subject to the plan will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer; or
- at or subsequent to such time the "business combination" is approved by the board of directors and authorized at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, and not by written consent, by the affirmative vote of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding voting stock which is not owned by the "interested stockholder."

A "business combination" is defined to include mergers, asset sales and other transactions resulting in financial benefit to a stockholder. In general, an "interested stockholder" is a person who, together with affiliates and associates, owns 15% or more of a corporation's voting stock or within three years did own 15% or more of a corporation's voting stock. However, Bain Capital, LLC and its affiliates will not be deemed to be "interested stockholders" regardless of the percentage of our voting stock owned by them. The statute could prohibit or delay mergers or other takeover or change in control attempts with respect to us and, accordingly, may discourage attempts to acquire us.

Limitations on Liability and Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Our certificate of incorporation limits the liability of our directors to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law and provides that we will indemnify them to the fullest extent permitted by such law. We have entered into indemnification agreements with our current directors and executive officers and expect to enter into a similar agreement with any new directors or executive officers. We also maintain customary directors' and officers' liability insurance policies that provide coverage to our directors and officers against loss arising from claims made by reason of breach of duty or other wrongful act and to us with respect to indemnification payments that we may make to directors and officers.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for our common stock is Computershare Trust Company, N.A.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We may sell securities in any of the ways described below or in any combination thereof:

- to or through underwriters or dealers;
- through one or more agents; or
- directly to purchasers or to a single purchaser.

The distribution of the securities by us may be effected from time to time in one or more transactions:

- at a fixed price, or prices, which may be changed from time to time;
- at market prices prevailing at the time of sale;
- at prices related to such prevailing market prices; or
- at negotiated prices.

Each prospectus supplement will describe the method of distribution of the securities and any applicable restrictions.

The prospectus supplement will describe the terms of the offering of the securities, including the following:

- the name or names of any underwriters, dealers or agents and the amounts of securities underwritten or purchased by each of them; and
- the public offering price of the securities, the proceeds to us, and any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers.

Any offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers will be specified in the applicable prospectus supplement and may be changed from time to time.

Only the agents or underwriters named in each prospectus supplement are agents or underwriters in connection with the securities being offered thereby.

We may authorize underwriters, dealers or other persons acting as our agents to solicit offers by certain institutions to purchase securities from us pursuant to delayed delivery contracts providing for payment and delivery on the date stated in each applicable prospectus supplement. Each contract will be for an amount not less than, and the aggregate amount of securities sold pursuant to such contracts shall not be less nor more than, the respective amounts stated in each applicable prospectus supplement. Institutions with whom the contracts, when authorized, may be made include commercial and savings banks, insurance companies, pension funds, investment companies, educational and charitable institutions and other institutions, but shall in all cases be subject to our approval. Delayed delivery contracts will be subject only to those conditions set forth in each applicable prospectus supplement, and each prospectus supplement will set forth any commissions we pay for solicitation of these contracts.

Agents, underwriters and other third parties described above may be entitled to indemnification by us against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribution from us with respect to payments which the agents, underwriters or third parties may be required to make in respect thereof. Agents, underwriters and such other third parties may be customers of, engage in transactions with, or perform services for us in the ordinary course of business. We may also use underwriters or such other third parties with whom we have a material relationship. We will describe the nature of any such relationship in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Certain underwriters may use this prospectus and any accompanying prospectus supplement for offers and sales related to market-making transactions in the securities. These underwriters may act as principal or agent in these transactions, and the sales will be made at prices related to prevailing market prices at the time of sale. Any underwriters involved in the sale of the securities may qualify as “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act. In addition, the underwriters’ commissions, discounts or concessions may qualify as underwriters’ compensation under the Securities Act and the rules of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

Our common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Underwriters may make a market in our common stock, but will not be obligated to do so and may discontinue any market making at any time without notice. We can make no assurance as to the development, maintenance or liquidity of any trading market for the securities.

Certain persons participating in an offering may engage in over-allotment, stabilizing transactions, short covering transactions and penalty bids in accordance with rules and regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Over-allotment involves sales in excess of the offering size, which create a short position. Stabilizing transactions permit bids to purchase the underlying security so long as the stabilizing bids do not exceed a specified maximum. Short covering transactions involve purchases of the securities in the open market after the distribution is completed to cover short positions. Penalty bids permit the underwriters to reclaim a selling concession from a dealer when the securities originally sold by the dealer are purchased in a covering transaction to cover short positions. Those activities may cause the price of the securities to be higher than it would otherwise be. If commenced, the underwriters may discontinue any of the activities at any time.
